

$12M Lawsuit: McGuinty's Government directly Interfering with OPP Operations

Sept. 23, 2007

CaledoniaWakeUpCall and VoiceofCanada have obtained a copy of the Statement of Claim for a $12Million lawsuit against Gwen Boniface, Julian Fantino, Brian Haggith and the Province of Ontario by Caledonia residents Dave Brown and Dana Chatwell.

McGuinty has repeatedly claimed that his government doesn't direct the operations of the OPP and yet the evidence is growing that the OPP are doing exactly what McGuinty's Government is telling them to do.

The following statements are found in Dave Brown & Dana Chatwell's lawsuit against the OPP and the Ontario Government.

56. On or about April 21st, 2007, the Minister for Aboriginal Affairs for Ontario, David Ramsey, entered into an agreement with the protestors and the Haudenosaunee Six Nations Confederacy council not to proceed further with any criminal charges arising from the raid by the O.P.P. on April 20th, 2006.

Why is the Minister for Aboriginal Affairs entering into any agreement that has to with policing issues? Why would Mr. Ramsey believe that the OPP would follow an agreement his ministry would sign unless the Ontario Government was going to force the OPP to abide by Mr. Ramsey's agreement?

Since when does Aboriginal Affairs arrange for agreements regarding criminal charges? This is not only a direct interference with the operation of the OPP, but also direct interference with the Court System itself.

57. On May 3rd, 2006, the Minister of Community Safety and Correctional Services for Ontario, Monte Kwinter, provided a written undertaking to the protestors and the Haudenosaunee Six Nations confederacy Council that the Crown would not ask for Federal Government to provide military support to the O.P.P. with respect to Douglas Creek Estates.

The direct hand of McGuinty's Government assured the ongoing violent actions of the Native Occupiers on DCE would not face any real opposition. Since McGuinty already knew the OPP would take no action against Native Occupiers this agreement allowed Native Occupiers to believe they would not be accountable for any crimes committed.

McGuinty's Government was, in fact, providing Native Protesters a written agreement that they were above the law. No force would be used to stop any criminal acts Native Protesters committed against residents.

This is why you so clearly see the Native Protesters roaming the streets wearing masks and carrying weapons because they have no fear of law enforcement.

McGuinty has abdicated his Authority to those committing Criminal Acts.
