

Key messages for Haldimand County

- The government is acting to help Caledonia residents in the immediate vicinity of Douglas Creek Estates cope with the continuing blockade.
- The Province is developing a Residents Assistance Program (RAP) to assist households, in the closest proximity to Douglas Creek Estates in Caledonia. RAP is ad hoc, interim financial assistance to assist with extraordinary costs and financial hardship experienced by these households.
- The first step is to provide assistance to those whose properties directly back onto the Douglas Creek Estates.
- Ministry of Municipal Affairs and Housing staff will be meeting one-on-one with residents whose properties back onto the Douglas Creek Estates or the adjacent railway to hear about their challenges.
- The Ministry of Municipal Affairs and Housing will be working with Haldimand County and the community to finalize the details of RAP.
- Ministry of Municipal Affairs and Housing will be developing the program based on what they hear during these visits. The province may consider developing other program components to meet community needs.