

Why Fantino Failed – Racism Charge comes to MSM

May 26, 2007

This week marks the death of Two Tier Justice in Ontario, but Fantino, McGuinty and Native Protesters are too blind to read the death certificate.

We have seen for the past year how a small group of Native people took it upon themselves to attack the very foundation of any democratic society and that is the "Rule of Law". They were emboldened by the complete failure of the OPP in Ipperwash to enforce any Law & Order and the 15+ years of appeasement only lead to Caledonia, Grassy Narrows, Deseronto and Hagersville.

The untold thousands of victims created by this small band of Native Protesters would have gone unnoticed by the people of Ontario because Main Stream Media would have avoided covering the stories. This is why CaledoniaWakeUpCall was created. The Toronto Media completely failed to cover what was happening in Caledonia or when they had a story it was about the poor protesters' point of view. Who cared about what residents were experiencing?

For the Media, it didn't want to be labeled as racist. We see this week how Mark on CHTV Live was called a racist because he believes that when crimes are committed people (any people) should go to jail.

I could re-quote the numerous stories in the media that implied I was a racist for the very statements now being made by politicians and media types all over this country. I could point out how every Ontario provincial political party publicly spoke out against me (including John Tory,) but suddenly they have had a change of heart.

Why did Fantino fail in his attempt to slander me? Why did Fantino fail to control the media and create endless B.S. propaganda about what was happening? The reasons are quite simple.

First, I present the Truth and therefore Fantino, McGuinty, Tory, etc., etc. were fighting to present lies to the public.

Second, I relied on human nature to take its course. Anyone who has been to any of my planning meetings has heard me talk about time being on our side.

Fantino and the Politicians were putting their trust in the very people who were committing the crimes. They were hoping and maybe even praying that these people would show some degree of self-control, some degree of understanding that they cannot awaken the Canadian Public to the truth which is that they are out of control.

CaledoniaWakeUpCall is a call to Canada as to what sort of future you want. Will we be ruled by thugs and criminals who see violence and intimidation as valid ways in a democratic society to get what they want? Do we want a country where police and politicians are so afraid and spineless that average citizens are assaulted, attacked and victimized while they do nothing?

Is the Canadian dream being destroyed by lawlessness and outright terrorist threats to force a political agenda?

You cannot allow any group to be above the law or any group to see itself as superior to all others.

Fantino and the Politicians are clueless about human nature and it now appears the Native Protesters are just as clueless.

What we have is a small group that has been raised to believe they are not subject to the Canadian Criminal Code. They have been raised to believe they are superior and have special rights over every other group with the right to take anything they want. They have been raised to see everyone else as the evil white man and any violence used is justifiable because of the past.

The leadership within Native communities has encouraged these people to occupy areas because of their own political agendas. National Native leaders claim it is just the frustrated youth involved, but people in the late 30s and 40s are no longer the youth. The National leaders can claim that the youth are frustrated, but the youth are doing exactly what the Native leaders want and that is to apply pressure so they can get more from provincial and federal governments.

Now we have confirmation that these new occupied areas are being taken over by more radical groups outside the control of Native Leadership. Surprise, surprise! Did they really think that human nature was such that you could teach people to break the law, occupy homes they didn't buy, get free hydro & water, get complete OPP protection, yet think these people wouldn't take it further?

All we had to do was to wait until these occupations self-exploded into what we now see. The Native Occupiers were creating a movement across Canada that was based on criminal behaviour, violence and on the victimization of innocent residents. Such a movement could only end one way and that is in the complete lawlessness we now see.

It was only a matter of time before the protesters would reject even the little control their own Native leadership had over them. In Turtle Island News last week we read that the Clan Mothers and Chiefs do not go onto DCE in Caledonia because they are afraid – welcome to the world of the residents. It appeared okay by many Native leaders that the victims of these violent Land Claims were non-Native, but now that they are also afraid of them it appears to be a different story.

It was also only a matter of time before spineless politicians would sing a new tune once the victimization spread beyond Caledonia. Politicians are not losing too much sleep over the fact that John Q. Public is being assaulted or his home being damaged, but in an election year you will suddenly see politicians lining up to say how outraged they are.

Of course, people who were out at my Town Hall Meetings back in September and October heard me tell people that local, provincial and federal elections were coming up and you could be sure that every politician would be trying to kiss our  to get our vote.

This is also the reason why Fantino failed. Not only did he put his hopes in the actions of the people committing the crimes and presented to the public repeated lies, but he must have hoped that McGuinty and other Politicians would be steadfastly behind him.

I personally cannot understand why Fantino would believe that any politician would be steadfast on anything. But it appears that he has hooked his future to McGuinty's propaganda machine in an attempt to get McGuinty re-elected.

Does he really think with an election coming that McGuinty will fall on his own sword to save him? The writing is on the wall and Fantino has failed to enforce the law, failed to end Two Tier Justice and failed to close down CaledoniaWakeUpCall.

It wasn't for the lack of trying – numerous press releases and statements in the media by Fantino to slander me, secret understandings with Haldimand County to get people not to listen to us, and even a lawsuit (supported by Fantino by 22 OPP officers who claim to have been hard done by while they collect all that money from Cashedonia).

Sorry Fantino, you failed. You backed the criminals instead of the law abiding citizens of this province. You used slander and intimidation instead of Truth and Justice. You failed to understand human nature and based your whole approach to help McGuinty's re-election campaign. But most of all you failure because you don't know what it means to be the youngest of six boys who have little to no parental guidance and what they can lead to.

Fantino somehow believed that his rants, his character assassinations, his slander, his bullying, his strong arm tactics would have an affect on me. I learned at a young age that those who are bigger try to bully you around. It truly was pitiful to watch him whine on TV while trying to bully me by his slander. It was down right funny to watch him call in the London Riot Team on Jan. 20th to stop peaceful people from keeping themselves warm by a fire on Chris' property.

It was quite amazing to witness him hide out at Unity Road and peek around the corner of the window to see us outside confronting the Ontario Chief Bully.

Fantino was reduced to a joke which only caused him to self-explode when he sent out his email rant. Since then he is no where to be found.

The School Yard Bully was confronted and like most bullies Fantino went home crying. Since then Fantino hasn't been back.
