OPP illegally arrest 8 people in Caledonia today

CANACE held a public rally today in Caledonia as part of their continued exposure of Race Based Policing by the OPP. As such we marched down county roads and entered Surrey St. which leads into Douglas Creek Estates in Caledonia.

The Ontario government purchased various lots on DCE back in July 2006, but the roads and approx. 16.5 acres are legally owned by Haldimand County. The OPP told us that if we walked onto provincially owned land we would be arrested for trespassing which was ordered by the Ontario government.

Knowing this we remained on county roads, and while standing in the middle of Surrey St. an OPP officer approached us and ordered us off the property or we would be arrested for trespassing. The OPP then proceeded to arrest Gary McHale, Merlyn Kinrade, Jeff Parkinson, Bonnie Stephens, Mark Vandermaas, Doug Fleming, Randy Fleming and Jack Van Halteren and issued each person a ticket for trespassing on provincially owned land.

Gary McHale provided the OPP with the legal land title deeds showing that the roads were county roads owned by Haldimand County. Even with this information the OPP continued to illegally ticket people and threatened people with over-night jail time if they attempted to walk down the county road.

The OPP has refused to obey any of their standard procedures to ensure that they know who the owner of the property is and whether they have any authority to arrest people for trespassing. Meanwhile, dozens of Native people were permitted to walk down Surrey St. without the OPP arresting a single person - apparently you are only a trespasser in the eyes of the province if you are non-Native. It is clear that OPP and the McGuinty government continues to enforce Racist Policing Policies in Caledonia.

Each person arrested is to appear in court on Jan. 6, 2011 in Cayuga. See attached documents showing the roads are owned by Haldimand County not the McGuinty government. The first map shows Surrey St. which enters DCE. The second document is the transfer deed from Dec. 19, 2005 showing Henco Inc. transferring the land to Haldimand County.
